AN ACT
STRENGTHENING ANIMAL WELFARE STANDARDS, ENACTING A REVISED ANIMAL WELFARE ACT, THEREBY REPEALING REPUBLIC ACT NO. 8485, AS AMENDED BY REPUBLIC ACT NO. 10631, APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress Assembled:

CHAPTER I

TITLE, DECLARATION OF POLICY, AND DEFINITION OF TERMS

1       Section. 1. Title. -This Act shall be known as the "The Revised Animal Welfare 2 Act".

3       Sec. 2. Declaration of Policy. - It is the State's policy to protect life, liberty, 4 and property which includes the promotion of animal welfare by establishing a system 5 of supervision and regulation to ensure humane treatment in all aspects of the 6 keeping, maintaining, handling, transporting, breeding, training, treating, and use of 7 animals. Good animal welfare involves adherence to the five basic freedoms of animals 8 namely:

9                   (1) Freedom from thirst, hunger, and malnutrition;

10                   (2) Freedom from physical discomfort and pain;

11                   (3) Freedom from injury and disease;

1 (4) Freedom to express normal behaviors; and 2 (5) Freedom from fear and distress.

3 Sec. 3. Coverage. - This Act shall apply to all programs, activities, and 4 undertakings of individuals, corporations, associations, organizations, or entities, 5 including but not limited to animal producers, small-hold farmers, private entities, or 6 government agencies, that:

7 a. Handle, breed, train, keep, care for, transport, exhibit, display, use, 8 or otherwise interact with any animals, whether as pets, livestock, wildlife, 9 or animals used for education, entertainment, or show; or 10 b. Own, operate, or maintain any facility that interacts with animals.

11 Sec. 4. Objectives. - The State shall promote the welfare of all animals by 12 establishing rules, regulations, guidelines, and standards and endeavor to achieve the following 13 objectives:

14 a. To protect and promote animal welfare by providing rules, regulations, 15 guidelines, and standards in the establishment and operation of animal 16 facilities, transportation, and the like;

17 b. To establish welfare guidelines and standards in the use, treating, breeding, 18 maintaining, keeping, and training of all animals;

19 c. To protect and promote animal health through the maintenance of adequate, 20 clean, and sanitary facilities used in the keeping, breeding, treating, and 21 training of animals;

22 d. To promote responsible pet ownership through education and information 23 dissemination;

24 e. To regulate the operation and maintenance of animal facilities or any 25 establishment where animals are kept for whatever reason or purpose;

26 f. To formulate rules and regulations that will ensure the promotion of animal 27 welfare in the establishment, maintenance, and operation of any pet shop, 28 kennel, national or local government pound, shelter, slaughterhouse, veterinary 29 clinic, veterinary hospital, stockyard, corral, stud farm, or stock farm or zoo for 30 the breeding, raising, treatment, sale or trading, or training of animals;

1 g. To establish inter-agency, multi-sectoral, and local government cooperation for 2 the promotion and protection of animal welfare;

3 h. To create an agency and establish an organizational structure that 4 will effectively implement the provisions of this Act and all laws relevant to it;

5 i. To promote public awareness and concern for caring for animals and 6 their welfare.

7 Sec. 5. *Animal Welfare Principles. - Animal welfare standards, practices, 8 policies, and regulations must be based on the following principles:

9 a. Decisions regarding animal care, use, and welfare shall be made by 10 Balancing scientific knowledge and professional judgment with consideration 11 of ethical and societal values;

12 b. Animals must be provided water, food, proper handling, health care, and 13 an environment appropriate to their care and use, with thoughtful 14 consideration for their species-typical biology and behavior;

15 c. Animals should be cared for in ways that minimize fear, pain, stress, 16 and suffering; Conservation and management of animal populations should 17 be humane, socially responsible, and scientifically prudent;

18 d. Protection of animal habitat is an animal welfare consideration;

19 e. Consider the five basic freedoms of animals:

20 (1) Freedom from thirst, hunger, and malnutrition;

21 (2) Freedom from physical discomfort and pain;

22 (3) Freedom from injury and disease;

23 (4) Freedom to conform to essential behavioral patterns; and

2 sufficient to maintain good health; and, if appropriate for the species, continuous access 3 to potable water that is not frozen, and is free of debris, feces, algae, and other 4 contaminants.

5 The Bureau shall provide guidelines on the appropriate food, water, and shelter 6 for the animals depending on the kind, nature, and special needs thereof.

7 Sec. 13. Provision of appropriate Shelter and Facilities. - Any keeper of an 8 animal must provide such animal with regular access to a shelter that has a solid floor; 9 provides protection from the sun, rain, and wind sufficient to maintain good health; is 10 regularly cleaned and sanitized; and is large enough for the animal to lie down, fully 11 stretch its limbs, turn around freely without any impediment, and stand up, including on 12 its hind legs if applicable, allowing the animal to express natural behavior and locomotion.

13 Sec. 14. Provision of Veterinary Medical Care for Sick, Compromised, or 14 Injured Animals. - Any keeper of an animal must take all reasonable steps to ensure 15 that the physical, health, and behavioral needs of the animals are met in accordance with 16 good practice and scientific knowledge. This shall include, at minimum, a hands-on 17 examination at least once yearly by a licensed veterinarian; prompt treatment of any 18 illness or injury by a licensed veterinarian; and, where needed, humane euthanasia by a 19 licensed veterinarian.

20 Sec. 15. Provision of Appropriate Transport Facility. - Transport facilities for 21 animals must be constructed, provisioned, and utilized in such a way as to avoid causing 22 injury or undue suffering to the animals. Transport facilities shall include secure cages or 23 restraint systems appropriate for the species being transported, as well as adequate 24 ventilation to ensure the comfort and safety of the animal appropriate to its nature and 25 size.

26 Sec. 16. Provision of Opportunity for Animals to Express Natural 27 Behaviors Including Play, Provision of Enrichment Activities, and Exercise. - 28 Any keeper of an animal must provide such animal regular opportunities to express 29 species-specific natural behaviors, for play and exercise in an area of sufficient space, 30 and for stimulation through environmental enrichment activities to promote their health 31 and welfare. The Bureau in consultation with stakeholders shall implement a timeline for 32 improving farm facilities to comply with the provisions hereof.

1 PROHIBITED ACTS

2 Sec. 17. *Prohibition on Cruelty, Maltreatment, Abuse, and Exploitation.

3 — It shall be unlawful for any person to torture, abuse, exploit any animal, to neglect to 4 provide adequate care, sustenance, or shelter, or maltreat any animals, cause or procure 5 to be tortured, or deprive such animals of adequate care sustenance or shelter, or 6 maltreat or use the same in research or experiments not expressly authorized by the 7 Bureau.

8 An act of cruelty includes but is not limited to the following:

9 (a) Beating, harming, injuring, crushing, mutilating, maiming, disfiguring, 10 stabbing, cutting, poisoning, drowning, torturing, tormenting, starving, 11 overworking, or abusing an animal, or any other act or omission toward an 12 animal, including any act of neglect, causing the animal pain, suffering, or 13 distress, whether physical or psychological;

14 (b) Exposing an animal to inhumane and unsafe conditions and situations 15 including overcrowded, inappropriate, unclean, or unsanitary animal 16 facilities, shelters, or transport facilities;

17 (c) Killing an animal by way of electrocution or gas chamber or using any 18 petrol or diesel exhaust;

19 (d) Using an animal in research or experiments not expressly authorized by 20 the Bureau; and 21 (e) Overworking an animal.

22 Sec. 18. *Prohibition on Neglect. - It shall be unlawful for any keeper of an 23 animal to fail to provide such animal with basic care in accordance with Chapter V of this 24 Act. It shall also be unlawful for any keeper of an animal to allow such animal to roam 25 the streets resulting in its impoundment by the local impounding authority.

26 Sec. 19. *Prohibition on Killing of Animals. - It shall be unlawful for any 27 person to kill any animals other than cattle, pigs, goats, sheep, poultry, rabbits, carabaos, 28 horses, or other food animals for human consumption. The killing of pets and animals not 29 declared as food animals for human consumption, or cause or procuring the same to be 30 killed is prohibited except in the following instances:

- 1           1. When it is done as part of the religious rituals of an established religion or 2           sect or a ritual required by a tribal or ethnic custom of indigenous cultural 3           communities; however, religious or tribal leaders shall keep records in 4           accordance with relevant guidelines issued on the matter;
- 5           2. Euthanasia of a pet animal that is afflicted with an incurable communicable 6           disease as determined and certified by a duly licensed veterinarian;
- 7           3. When euthanasia of an animal is deemed necessary to put an end to the 8           misery suffered by the animal as determined and certified by a duly licensed 9           veterinarian;
- 10          4. When it is done to prevent imminent danger to the life or limb of a human 11          being;
- 12          5. When done for the purpose of animal population control as a last resort duly 13          certified by the Provincial/City Veterinary Officer;
- 14          6. Euthanasia of an animal by a duly licensed veterinarian after the animal has 15          been used in an authorized research or experiment in accordance with Section 16          26;
- 17          7. Humane slaughter of a farm animal; or
- 18          8. Any other ground analogous to the foregoing as determined and certified by 19          a duly licensed veterinarian. In all of the above-mentioned cases, the killing shall 20          at all times be done only through euthanasia or other humane procedures 21          approved by the Animal Welfare Bureau. For this purpose, humane procedures 22          shall mean the use of the most scientific methods available as may be 23          determined by the Bureau.

24           Sec. 20. Prohibition on Animal Fights. -It is prohibited to subject animals 25           to fights such as but not limited to dog fighting, carabao or bullfighting or horse fighting, 26           and the like, not authorized or regulated by law. Any person who participates under the 27           circumstances as described herein shall be considered as an accessory in the commission 28           of animal fighting and/or abetting in the commission of animal cruelty. It shall include but 29           not be limited to pitting one animal with another for the purpose of human entertainment,

1 wagering, or sport. In certain instances, one of the animals involved may be a "bait 2 animal" used for the ostensible purpose of sport or training.

3 The prohibition on animal fights shall include but not be limited to the following:

4 (a) Cause, procure, permit, encourage, promote, organize, sponsor, or 5 incite a fight in which an animal is pitted against another animal for any 6 purposes such as dog fighting and horse fighting and the like;

7 (b) Advertise, promote, sell tickets, or otherwise assist in an animal fighting 8 venture;

9 (c) Attend such a fight;

10 (d) Breed or train any animal for the purpose of having it fight, engage, or 11 otherwise participate in an animal fighting venture;

12 (e) Permit an animal fighting venture to take place on any site, structure, 13 facility, or other premises under the person's ownership or control;

14 (f) Attend, wager on, or otherwise patronize an animal fighting venture; and 15 (g) Cause or allow a person who has not yet reached the age of 16 to attend 16 an animal fighting venture.

17 Animal fighting ventures held during festivities, festivals, fiestas, and the like are 18 not exempt from this Section and are strictly prohibited.

19 Sec. 21. Prohibition on Dog Meat Trading. - It shall be unlawful for any 20 person to engage in the trade of dogs for their meat which includes the farming or 21 capture, transport, sale, or slaughter of dogs and their meat for commercial human 22 consumption. The trade of dogs shall include but shall not be limited to buying and/or 23 selling of dogs, dog meats and carcasses, dog farming, collecting, and/or slaughtering 24 of dogs for commercial consumption.

25 Sec. 22. Prohibition on Abandonment. - It shall be unlawful for any keeper 26 of an animal, whether temporary or permanent, to abandon such animal. Animal 27 abandonment refers to leaving behind an animal alone or permitting the animal to be 28 abandoned in circumstances that might cause them harm.

29 Sec. 23. Prohibition on Ear Cropping/ Tail docking, De-vocalization, and 30 Declawing. - The conduct of ear cropping, tail docking, devocalization, declawing, or

1 any other similar mutilation is prohibited as constituting animal cruelty except in cases 2 as may be required for the well-being of the animal as determined by a duly licensed 3 veterinarian and not for aesthetic purposes. When allowed, the same may only be 4 performed by a duly licensed veterinarian.

5 Sec. 24. *Operating an Animal Facility without a Permit or Certificate. - 6 Operating any facility without a necessary permit or certification from the Bureau is 7 hereby prohibited.

8 CHAPTER VI
9 ENFORCEMENT

10 Sec. 25. *In General. - The Bureau, either independently, or in cooperation with 11 LGUs, the registered NGOs, Animal Welfare Enforcement Officers, the Philippine National 12 Police, and other concerned parties, is authorized to carry out enforcement operations 13 and measures to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Act and to eradicate, stop 14 and prevent activities prohibited under this Act.

15 Sec. 26. *Visitorial/Inspection Power. - Owners and/or operators of animal 16 facilities shall be subjected to regular, as well as random Inspections by the Bureau on 17 its own or through its deputized agencies and Enforcement Officers to ensure compliance 18 with the standards set forth by this Act and subsequent rules and regulations. Fines and 19 suspension or revocation of certificates as provided in the implementing rules and 20 regulations of this Act shall be imposed in case of non-compliance.

21 Sec. 27. *Apprehension of Offending Person/s. - Any person who has 22 knowledge or Information about the commission of any of the prohibited acts heretofore 23 cited may refer the same to the law enforcement authority or to the Animal Welfare 24 Bureau and/or its deputized animal welfare enforcement officers, and other law 25 enforcement agencies for appropriate action. The procedure in the filing of criminal 26 charges shall be as prescribed by the rules of criminal procedure contained in the Rules 27 of Court.

28 Sec. 28. *Seizure of Effects. -Any items seized including animals, pursuant to 29 arrests made for violation of any provision of this Act shall be held by any person, facility, 30 or organization, authorized by the Bureau, including the LGUs, the law enforcement 31 agencies or any Bureau accredited NGO pending disposition of administrative, civil and 32 criminal proceedings. Animals seized shall be referred to Bureau-accredited animal

1 facilities. For wildlife, the same shall be referred to the DENR - BMB, without prejudice to 2 the latter's referral or transfer of the animals to other animal facilities provided it has 3 better and more suited facilities.

4 Any animals seized and/or rescued from any inhumane condition or facility shall be 5 immediately relieved from such condition or situation without prejudice to the 6 immediate conduct of proper documentation such as photographing for purposes of 7 preserving evidence.

8 Sec. 29. *Rescue of Animals in an Enclosed Facility. - Any animals found 9 to have been kept, abandoned, deprived of basic care, protection, and food, or 10 subjected to inhumane or cruel situations in an enclosed, locked, secured, or sealed 11 facility, whether public or private, may be rescued, or relieved from the cruel situation or 12 condition in coordination with the Barangay or the Law enforcement agencies or Animal 13 Welfare Enforcement Officers/NGOs. The said enclosed facility may be broken open subject 14 to diligent efforts shown to contact the owner of the facility. Except in cases where 15 there is an imminent danger to the life of the animal, diligent effort to contact the 16 owner of the facility may be dispensed with provided the Barangay or the Police or any 17 licensed veterinarian has certified on the occurrence of such danger.

18 Sec. 30. *Protection Orders. - A protection order is a relief granted under 19 this Act for the purpose of preventing further violations of the provisions herein as 20 well as to protect an animal from further distress, fear, cruelty, or discomfort by 21 relieving them or removing them from such inhumane condition and granting other 22 necessary reliefs. The protection order shall be enforced by law enforcement agencies, 23 deputized animal welfare enforcement officers, or the Bureau.

24 The protection orders that may be issued under this Act are the Barangay 25 Protection Order (BPO), temporary protection order (TPO), and permanent protection 26 order (PPO).

27 A Barangay Protection Order is issued by the barangay office where the 28 perpetrator of the prohibited act or the complaining individual or entity lives or holds 29 office. This BPO shall be effective for fifteen (15) days. A Temporary Protection Order shall 30 be issued by the court having jurisdiction over the case filed against the respondent 31 which shall last for a period of thirty (30) days. A Permanent Protection Order shall be 32 issued by the appropriate court having jurisdiction over the case filed against the 1 respondent which shall remain in effect unless revoked by the court after the dismissal of 2 the case against the respondent.

3 A protection order may be sought by any concerned citizen, deputized animal 4 welfare officer, law enforcement officer, the Board, or the LGU through the City or 5 Provincial Veterinary Officers.

6 The protection under this Act may include any of the following reliefs:

7 (a) Prohibition of respondent from taking possession of the animal(s) that 8 is or was in the respondent's possession;

9 (b) Prohibition of respondent from taking possession of any animal for the 10 duration of the protection order;

11 (c) Prohibition of respondent from purchasing any live animal for any 12 purpose for the duration of the protection order;

13 (d) Directing the respondent to stay away from the person who has caused 14 the apprehension of the respondent and his or her family or household 15 member at a distance specified in the protection order or a minimum of 50 16 meters;

17 (e) Directing the respondent to stay away from the residence, school, place 18 of employment, or any specified place frequented by a particular reporter, 19 as well as such reporter's designated family or household member/s;

20 (f) Granting temporary or permanent custody of the animal to any animal 21 welfare enforcement officer or any interested animal welfare group who 22 shall apply for the custody of said animal/s;

23 (g) Restitution for actual costs for the rescue, care, and rehabilitation of 24 animal/s subject matter of the protection order; and 25 (h) Such other forms of relief as the court deems necessary to protect any 26 animals as well as any Reporter and the Reporter's designated family or 27 household member/s.

28 The issuance of the BPO or the pendency of an application for BPO shall not 29 preclude the application for or the granting of TPO or PPO. Any violation of the protection 30 order shall be deemed as multiple violations under this Act and shall be penalized 31 accordingly.

1           Sec. 31. Strategic Lawsuit Against Public Participation (SLAPP) in the 2 Enforcement of this Act. - If a person believes that a legal action filed against the 3 person constitutes a SLAPP, such person may make such assertion as an affirmative 4 defense in the action. A special hearing on the SLAPP affirmative defense shall be held 5 by the court at the earliest possible juncture in the action. The hearing on the SLAPP 6 affirmative defense shall be summary in nature, and the SLAPP affirmative defense shall 7 be resolved within thirty (30) days after the summary hearing. If the court dismisses the 8 action pursuant to the SLAPP affirmative defense, the court may award attorney's fees 9 and costs of suit, as well as damages under a counterclaim if such has been filed. The 10 dismissal shall be with prejudice.

11           If the court rejects the SLAPP affirmative defense, the evidence adduced during 12 the summary hearing shall be treated as evidence of the parties on the merits of the case.
13 The action shall proceed in accordance with the Rules of the Court.

14           Sec. 32. Disputable Presumption. - If, at the time of apprehension, a person 15 lacks the appropriate permit, certification or clearance, or authority, issued by the Bureau 16 or other pertinent government agencies including duly licensed Local Government 17 Veterinarian, the following shall constitute prima facie evidence of the corresponding 18 illegal acts punishable under this Act:

- 19           a. The possession of a body, carcasses or any parts thereof, meats of any animals 20 prohibited to be killed, whether raw, cooked or processed, other than those 21 allowed under existing laws on food animals, without justification or necessary 22 permit or veterinary certificate from the Bureau, LGU Veterinarian, or the 23 National Meat Inspection Service or local slaughterhouses showing the reasons 24 for the killing and the method used for the killing as well as the purpose for 25 which the carcasses are to be used is a presumption that the animals were 26 killed under circumstances prohibited under this Act thus, punishable, provided 27 that such possession includes the possession of any paraphernalia used for 28 killing, torture or maltreatment such as clubs, knife, cages, restraints along with 29 live or dead animals including any of its products and derivatives shall be a 30 disputable presumption that the possessor caused the killing and/or 31 destruction, infliction of injury, maltreatment, as appropriate;
- 32           b. The presence of fresh and/or dried blood, by-products, or derivatives of the 1 animals, with or without the tools, equipment, and/or paraphernalia 2 derivatives, shall be a disputable presumption of the killing and/or destruction 3 of the habitat of the animal involved.

4 CHAPTER VII

5 PERMITS, CERTIFICATES, AND AUTHORITY TO COLLECT FEES AND CHARGES

6 Sec. 33. *Certificate of Registration. - No person, association, partnership, 7 corporation, cooperative, or any government agency or instrumentality shall establish, 8 maintain, or operate any animal facility including transport facility public or private, 9 without first securing from the Bureau a certificate of registration thereof. Any facility, 10 public or private, shall be considered as operating an animal facility when the following 11 circumstances are present:

- 12 a. When operating and representing itself publicly as such; and
- 13 b. When it has been securing donations or effecting rescue under the 14 definition of this code.

15 As such, the said facility shall be covered by the guidelines and requirements of 16 the Act.

17 The Bureau shall provide ample and reasonable time for any person, association, 18 partnership, corporation, cooperative, or any government agency or instrumentality to 19 register any animal facility, with due consideration of their scale and financial resources.

20 The Bureau may revoke or cancel the certificate of registration of an animal facility 21 if such animal facility is found to be in violation of any provision of this Act or any 22 associated guidelines, rules, regulations, standards or other just cause. The facility may 23 file with the Bureau a request for reconsideration within fifteen (15) calendar days from 24 receipt of the notice of revocation or cancellation of certificate. The Bureau shall resolve 25 the same with finality within fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of the request.

26 Sec. 34. *Mayor's Permit Requirement. - No LGU shall issue a Mayor's or 27 business permit to any person, association, partnership, corporation, cooperative or 28 government agency or instrumentality without the presentation of a certificate coming 29 from the Bureau that it has complied with the animal welfare standards set forth herein 30 or any rules and regulations as may hereafter be enforced.

31 CHAPTER VIII

1 OTHER ANIMAL WELFARE PROVISIONS

2 Sec. 35. Use of Animals for Show, Media, TV, Movies, or Entertainment -

3 Promoters/organizers of animal shows, media, or entertainment, shall obtain the 4 necessary permit from the Bureau when using animals. The presence of a licensed 5 veterinarian during the entire show, taping, shooting, or program shall be required. The 6 Bureau shall lay down requirements for this purpose. All other provisions regarding proper 7 care and treatment of animals, in general, shall be applicable to these animals used for 8 show or entertainment, especially with respect to transport, holding area, allowance for 9 rest, and provision of food and water.

10 It shall be unlawful for producers and promoters of shows where animals are used 11 to Import, procure or use animals from sources without animal welfare standards/laws 12 and/or have been shown to have maltreated or exposed animals to Inhumane conditions 13 prior to their importation. The animal should be given sufficient food and accommodation 14 as well as adequate rest for the entire duration of Its stay in the Philippines.

15 Sec. 36. Use of Animals for Work. - Animals used as working animals including 16 but not limited to carriage horses, farm animals, and the like must comply with the health 17 and welfare standards set forth herein and as may be issued by the Bureau taking into 18 consideration their nature and behavior. Working animals should not be allowed to work 19 under circumstances where their health and safety will be at risk. Overworking of animals 20 is hereby prohibited. Water and appropriate shelter protecting the same from extreme 21 weather conditions must be provided.

22 Sec. 37. Use of Animals as a Guide or Service Animals. — Service animals,

23 such as but not limited to guide/service dogs and police or K9 dogs are hereby regulated 24 by the Bureau and welfare guidelines established. Certification guidelines and standards 25 for the accreditation of dogs shall be established by the Bureau in consultation with 26 relevant agencies and concerned groups. Service dogs or Guide dogs shall be defined 27 accordingly.

28 Sec. 38. Use of Animals in Research and Scientific Study. - Animals used in 29 scientific procedures, research, and studies shall be regulated by the Bureau, ensuring 30 that animal welfare regulations and guidelines in the use, experimentation, testing, and 31 manipulations of animals for said purpose are complied with at all times. The academe 32 and research institutions are encouraged to use non-animal research, testing, or

1 educational model or strategy when reasonably and practicably available. Animal 2 experimentation may be performed only as a last resort upon exhaustion of alternative 3 approaches. No person, partnership, corporation, cooperative, government agency, or 4 instrumentality undertaking or operating any research facility shall use any animal in 5 research or experiments without first obtaining written authorization from the Bureau 6 upon compliance with such guidelines and qualifications necessary to obtain such 7 authority.

8 Sec. 39. *Farm Animals. - The Bureau shall set out standards and guidelines in 9 consultation with the stakeholders in the establishment and gradual compliance with 10 animal welfare standards to better the living and health condition of animals in the farm 11 industry.

12 Sec. 40. *Transportation of Animals. - The following stipulations shall be 13 followed when transporting animals:

14 a. No person shall transport an animal or cause an animal to be transported in a 15 way likely to cause injury or undue suffering to an animal, including but not limited 16 to overcrowding, lack of adequate ventilation and appropriate transport cages, 17 unnecessary or painful restraint, improper and unsafe stowing, transport during 18 extreme weather condition and the like, as well as failure to adequately provide 19 food and water for the transported animals.

20 b. Any person transporting an animal in connection with an economic activity shall:

21 i. Ensure that such animal is fit to travel and checked regularly during the 22 voyage, at least once every six hours;

23 ii. Protect such animals from extreme temperatures, with journeys limited 24 to duration as prescribed by the Bureau depending on the species, nature, 25 and needs of the transported animal;

26 iii. Ensure that vehicle loading and unloading facilities are constructed and 27 maintained to avoid injury and suffering;

28 iv. Provide sufficient floor space and height allowance so as to allow such 29 animal to lie down, stand up, fully stretch Its limbs, and turn around freely 30 without any Impediment;

- v. After each eight (8) hour travel period, rest such animal off the vehicle for at least 24 hours, providing such animal sufficient water and feed; and
- vi. The route with the shortest distance shall be preferred.

For purposes of this Section, transport "in connection with an economic activity" includes but is not limited to journeys undertaken by commercial haulers, farmers, commercial animal breeders, and horse racers. Such transport is not limited to transport where an immediate exchange of money, goods, or services takes place and instead includes, in particular, transport that directly or indirectly involves or aims at a financial gain.

c. No person shall transport an animal fewer than eight (8) weeks old, a pregnant female who has passed through ninety percent (90%) of her expected gestational period, a female who has given birth in the past seven (7) days, or a sick or injured animal unless such transport is to or from a veterinary practice or clinic.

d. Any violation of this Section shall be penalized even if the transporter has a permit to transport from the Bureau; and

e. Any vehicle used in the transportation or importation/exportation of animals in violation of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed an instrument employed in the commission of the crime and shall be ordered confiscated and forfeited in favor of the government upon conviction of the accused.

Sec. 41. *Import and Export of Live Animals. — For the import and/or export of live animals, compliance with the provisions of this Act must be ensured, including proper holding facilities. Import of animals from countries of extremely cold climates shall be prohibited unless specifically authorized on a case-by-case basis by the Bureau upon submission of an approved care and sustainability program or plan.

Sec. 42. *Spay and Neuter and Vaccination of Stray Cats and Dogs. - The LGUs through the Office of the Provincial, City, and First-Class Municipalities shall implement a mandatory spay and neuter for stray dogs and cats to control animal strays and rabies. The Bureau may come up with other dog/cat population control programs in keeping with what is relevant and necessary. Pest control companies shall not be allowed to capture and dispose of cats and/or dogs. To ensure commitment by the LGUs, the implementation of this Section shall be part of their Seal of Good Local Governance (SGLG) assessment system.

1 pesos (P10,000.00). The penalties imposed herein are without prejudice to the 2 administrative liability of the owner/operator.

3 d. Failure to obtain the required permits to use animals for show, 4 entainment, or any form of media, or use animals for research and/or scientific 5 education experiment shall be punished with a penalty of imprisonment ranging 6 from six (6) months to one (1) year and six (6) months and a fine not exceeding 7 thirty thousand pesos (P30,000.00).

8 e. If the violation is committed by a juridical person, the offender 9 responsible thereof shall be punished with the corresponding penalty of 10 Imprisonment. If the violation is committed by an alien, he or she shall be 11 immediately deported after the service of sentence without any further 12 proceedings;

13 f. The penalty of imprisonment ranging from two (2) years and one (1) day 14 to three (3) years and a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty thousand pesos 15 (P250,000.00), shall be imposed if the offense involves any of the following 16 circumstances:

- 17 i. Committed by a syndicate involving a group of three (3) or more 18 individuals;
- 19 ii. Committed by an offender who makes a business out of cruelty to 20 animals;
- 21 iii. Committed by a public officer or employee; or
- 22 iv. Where at least three (3) animals are involved.

23 g. In any of the foregoing situations, the offender shall suffer subsidiary 24 imprisonment in case of insolvency and the inability to pay fine.

25 h. The maximum applicable penalty shall be imposed upon a person who, 26 at the time of his or her trial for a violation of this Act, shall have been previously 27 convicted by final judgment of the same or another violation of this Act;

28 i. Any person found guilty of dog meat trading shall be punished with a 29 penalty of fine not exceeding five thousand pesos (P5,000.00) per dog and penalty 30 of Imprisonment ranging from one (1) year to four (4) years;

1 j. Any violation of any other provisions of this Act shall be punished with a 2 penalty of imprisonment ranging from three (3) months to one (1) year and a fine 3 not exceeding five thousand pesos (P5,000.00);

4 k. The liability of any person herein is without prejudice to his/her liability 5 for any other offenses under another law including administrative liabilities;

6 l. Any person who has been habitually convicted of a violation of this Act 7 shall be permanently and perpetually disqualified from being Issued any permits 8 or certificates to operate any animal facility including owning or possessing an 9 animal/pet;

10 m. The courts, in its discretion, in lieu of service in jail, may require that the 11 imposed penalties of imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year be served by the 12 defendant by rendering community service under such terms and conditions that 13 the courts may determine depending on the gravity of the offense. Under this 14 circumstance, the courts will prepare an order imposing the penalty of community 15 service in lieu of the penalty, specifying the number of hours to be worked and the 16 period for it to be completed. Community service to be rendered must be related 17 to assistance to animals.

18 CHAPTER XI
